There are many in our relationships who are struggling with health issues. Pray that you can be an encouragement to those who are feeling lost and forgotten.

Cards , phone calls, Facetime, with those who have it, are all ways of letting others know that you care.

Dear Father:

So many of our brethren in different congregations around the world are being impacted by the pandemic and the way it is affecting their times of fellowship and encouragement.

God help us to recognize that Satan would have us just sit back and wait, dulling our needs for instruction. Help us to not be complacent, to be more diligent in study so we can be ready to fight off the snares of Satan. Bible studies are being done differently and it is up to us to avail ourselves of these new ways of communion with each other. Help us grow rather than fail. Help us to be bold! Help us to stay the course. You are Lord and You will guide us! Let us lean on You! Let us learn your promises and trust You. Help us to grow strong, not feeble.

In Jesus precious name we come to you, Amen

A Hundred Years from Now

Tell me, friend, what will it matter,
Say, a hundred years from now,
If you owned ten thousand acres
Or just one old broken plough,
If you bought your suits in Paris
And your shoes in Italy,
Or your clothes were made in patches
Like the bed quilts used to be.
But there's more to life than living,
More for those who will believe.
More stores laid up in Heaven
If the Saviour, we receive.
Whether we are lost forever
Or to Jesus here we bow.
This is what will make the difference
In a hundred years from now.
