UPDATES AND NEW INFORMATION

Paul Derkach is in hospital in Kamloops. He is extremely tired and is fighting infection from his gun shot wound. He has had a rod put in his leg from the knee down. It is going to be many months of recovery and he will need us to continue praying for his complete recovery both physically and mentally. His daughters are with him presently, but the doctors are asking for little or no visitors until he regains some of his strength.

The Celebration of Life for our brother, Gordon Parmenter is planned for April 27th @ 4pm at the SASCU Rec Center

Folks from all over the States and Canada and from around the world are deeply affected by his death. He was a humble man who took being a follower of Christ very seriously. Condolences and prayers, too numerous to list, have poured in to support Peggy, the family and the Church.

Gordon's legacy will continue to be felt for many years to come and he will be deeply missed for his loving and encouraging ways.

Let us be aware of each other in the days ahead as we all are grieving this loss and as we come to peace with the trauma that was experienced. Each of us will feel this experience in a different way and at different times.

Bev Holmes went "home" to be with the Lord April 13th. Peace and release from the cancer she so valiantly fought is now hers. Her celebration of life will be in early August - Date to be announced.

Congratulations
Will & Danielle!

*Will and Danielle plan to marry on May 5th

Details to follow.

TODAYS READING Psalm 22: 1-2

¹ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

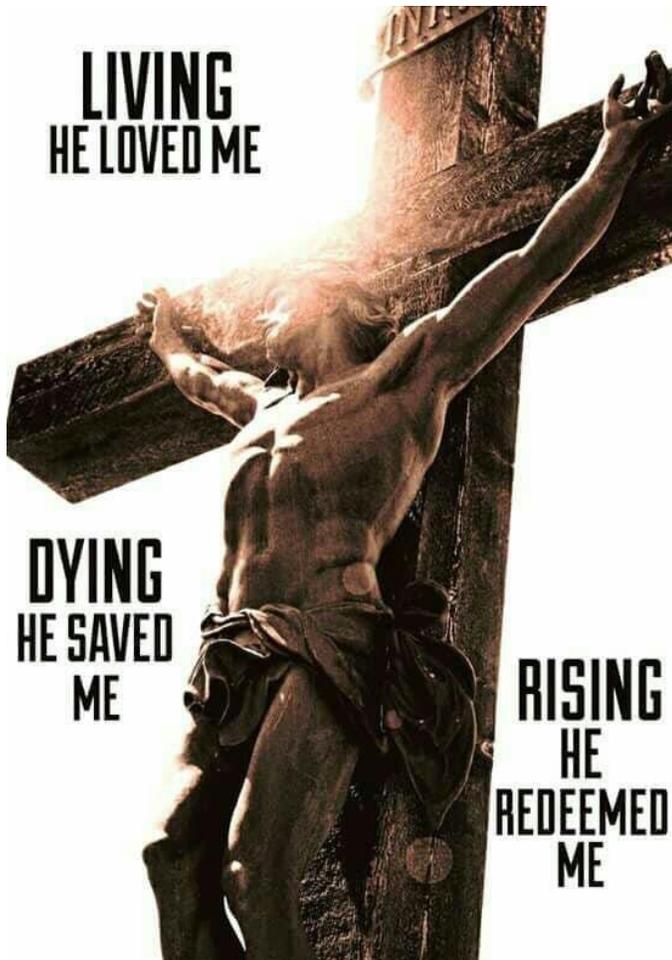

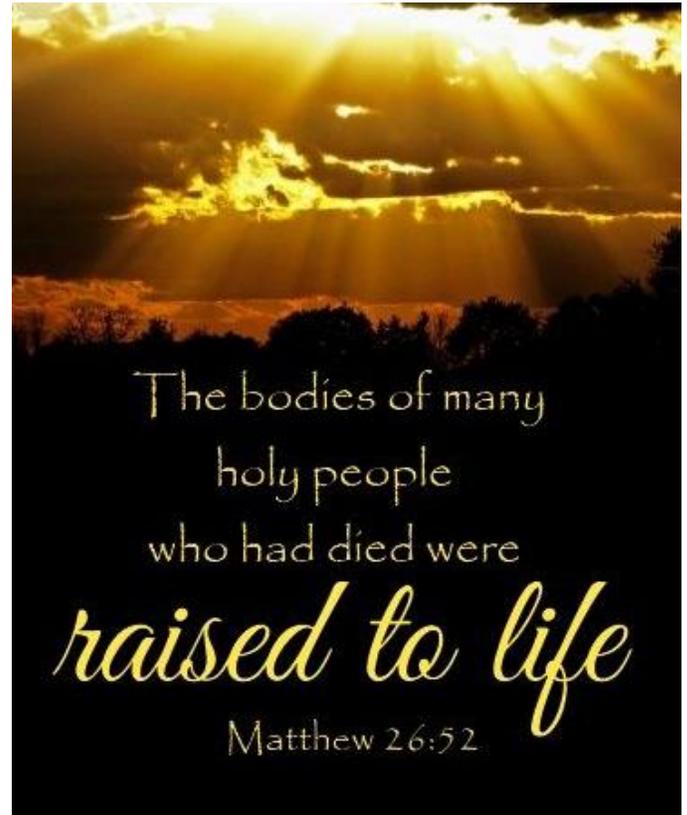

Why are you so far from saving me,
so far from my cries of anguish?

² My God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer,

by night, but I find no rest.

Matthew 27: 45

⁴⁵ From noon until three in the afternoon darkness came over all the land.

“Things are not as they seem. In your life. In your son’s life. In your wife’s life. In the lives of your other children. In the lives of other patients in ICU. Things are not as they seem. There is more going on than meets the un-aided sense. There is a God. A Living God. A good God. A faithful God. A powerful God. A reigning God. An ever-present God. There is never a time when this God is not good. There is never a time when this God is not faithful. There is never a time when this God is not powerful. There is never a time when the God of the Bible is not on the throne of the universe. There is never a time when the God we meet in Jesus is not present. It is a promise: “I will never leave you or forsake you.”
