No Wonder We Worship Our God With Praise

first of all look at some of the things God has given us .God provided all the necessary things needed to live . He provided man with the ability to think, to reason, and to make decisions. God gave us everything we see, touch and feel as well as mysteries that we may never know or understand.

God Gave His Holy Eternal Word – Psa. 119:105; Isa. 40:8. We don't have to live our lives in fear and darkness, having no idea how God wants us to live in order to be pleasing to Him. He has provided us with everything we need in His God-breathed word. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works" – 2 Tim. 3:16-17.

God's word is powerful and has the ability to change our lives – Psa. 119:130; Heb. 4:12. It provides us with faith and hope. It instructs us on what we must do to be saved as well as what to avoid so that we are not separated by sin from God .God knew beforehand that man would sin causing separation and that a heavenly sacrifice would have to be made to restore man to a right relationship with Him. He knew beforehand that Christ would have to carry our sins on the cross. God was willing to allow His only Son to leave heaven and come to the earth to live as a man and ultimately to give His life so that we could be pardoned from our sins. Christ came to the earth to save sinners – 1 Tim. 1:15.

The intention is not to oversimplify what we can offer to God, but I believe what He expects from us is praise and devotion. If we live our lives in accordance with His word and obey the teachings and commandments of the Scriptures, then we will receive the promise of an eternal home in heaven – Eccl. 12:13;

Consider the following Hymn we often sing.

How deep the Father's love for us

How deep the Father's love for us
How vast beyond all measure
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure
How great the pain of searing loss

The Father turns His face away
As wounds which mar the Chosen One
Bring many sons to glory

Behold the man upon a cross
My sin upon His shoulders
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers
It was my sin that held Him there
Until it was accomplished
His dying breath has brought me life.
I know that it is finished

I will not boast in anything
No gifts, no power, no wisdom
But I will boast in Jesus Christ
His death and resurrection
Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer
But this I know with all my heart
His wounds have paid my ransom
